

Lars-Erik Norrström Trio

"vogel" LJCD 5233

Lars-Erik Norrström is since 20 years a pianist and composer on professional basis. He has given performances as a member of different groups as well as solo recitals on jazz stages and jazz festivals in Sweden, Scandinavia, Europe and South-Africa. Lars-Erik has received judgements like "A blinding piano soloist", "Norrström is a brilliant composer", and "Lars-Erik Norrström impersonates the compromiseless artist". Earlier works by Lars-Erik Norrström are released on albums, commended by the critics, with the groups "Kejsaren", "ARP", "Corpo" and on his solo album "Let's take another dream".

Drummer Terje Sundby lives in Gothenburg, Sweden, working as a musician, composer, and teacher. He is an associate professor at the Conservatory of Ingesund as well as the "rhythmic" Conservatory of Ålborg, Denmark. Terje is represented with compositions and arrangements of his own on three CD-albums with the Swedish group "Corpo". He has since the age of 17 been performing in Scandinavia, Europe, and South-Africa playing with many different groups and jazz artists such as Palle Danielsson, Anders Jormin, Joakim Milder, Thomas Stanko, Lennart Åberg, Anders Bergcrantz, Lina Nyberg.

Bass player Bruno Råberg hails from Sweden and currently resides in Boston, USA, where he has been an associate professor at the Berklee College of Music since 1986. At age 20 he joined Swedish trombone virtuoso Eje Thelin's group, and played the major festivals in Europe as well as the Monterey Jazz Festival in the U.S. Since moving to the U.S in 1982 Bruno has performed and recorded with numerous internationally known jazz artists such as Sam Rivers, Jerry Bergonzi, Georg Garzone, Billy Hart, Bob Moses, Mick Goodrick, Dick Oates, Kenwood Dennard och Bob Mintzer to name a few.
