Nilsson Sandell Duo is a unit that has been around since 2002, but Sten and Per Anders have been active in the free impro movement since the seventies with tours and records. The music is based on a concept of fusion of free impro, live electronics and electro acoustic music. On this cd you will hear the piano and voice of Sten Sandell sampled and processed in real time by Per Anders with the software Max/MSP.

Strings and objects is cooperation between School of music at Göteborg University and LJ records.

Sten Sandell has, except playing with his own groups like Gush, Stockholm Low Dynamic Orchestra and his own trio, worked as a solo artist as well as played with a number of well known musicians like: Sven Åke Johansson, Evan Parker, Barry Guy to mention a few.

Per Anders Nilsson has played saxophone with the legendary Swedish groups Olle Bäver and Volapyk. In 1993 Per Anders released a solo CD where he created algorithmic computer based jazz and played together with the Norwegian singer Karin Krog. In recent years, Nilsson has focused in ways of using the computer as a musical instrument.
